

Cirencester friendly
The income protection people

Cirencester friendly wins four star award

Cirencester friendly have recently been awarded a fantastic four star award in this year's FTAdviser Online Service Awards!

Recognised in a number of areas, including online product tools and literature, reliability and overall functionality and site design, the Society is delighted to have been rewarded with such a creditable accolade.

Chief Executive of Cirencester friendly, Paul Hudson, says "We believe our website is a key tool for financial advisers. We have tried to incorporate useful and relevant information whilst providing a site that remains easy to navigate."

There were a number of key areas the award recognised;

- Overall functionality & site design
- Ease of transaction/business processing
- Online product tools and literature
- Reliability
- Personal contact and support levels
- Business support/commission service

Our other awards

Cirencester friendly are delighted to be able to add the four star Online Service Award to a number of others recently won.